

East bombs Bartlett

Grant Bledsoe did a little bit of everything Saturday, leading East to a 15-5 victory over Bartlett in the second game of a doubleheader at Kosinski Fields. East won the first game 7-0.

Bledsoe pitched five innings with five strikeouts to earn the win and cranked a solo home run to lead off the fifth inning. Antoine McLeod delivered four hits, scored four times and stole four bases. Chris Tuck added a two-run home run for East.

In the first game, East pitcher Corey Madden picked up the win and Brant Jensen went 3 for 3 in his first varsity start. Jordan Farkas, Bledsoe and Tuck each banged out two hits apiece.
